The Epiphany of the Lord (Solemnity) 4th & 5th January 2020

Dear Friends,

In the Gospel today we hear of the journey of the wise men to Bethlehem. On their way, they temporarily lose sight of the star they are following, and proceed to King Herod's palace to enquire as to where the Child is to be born. Herod is deeply disturbed by their mention of a newborn 'King of the Jews.' Herod himself was not a Jew, but had been appointed King of Judea by the Romans, and was dangerously paranoid about threats to his power. He is eager to eliminate this new threat and after learning that the scriptures point to Bethlehem as the place of the Child's birth, he sends the wise men on, telling them to return with information.

The wise men listen to Herod but are not taken in by him. They persevered and continued to patiently seek for the child, not allowing their own expectations, or the illusions, deceptions and snares of Herod to trap them. The wise men display a certain holy cunning. They have a spiritual shrewdness, which enables them to recognize danger and avoid it; once they do find the child, they listen to the angel in their dream and do not go back to Herod. The wise men teach us how to discern good and evil voices, and to make good and wise decisions. We should aim to be simple, but also need to be astute, as Jesus told his disciples, 'Be wise as serpents and innocent as doves.'

We pray that, like the wise men, we will always be open to the directions and promptings of the Holy Spirit, to navigate the obstacles of our life's journey, and reach safely the joy of eternity.

Have a good week

God Bless

Fr Maurice
