The Body and Blood of Christ (Year A)
13th & 14th June 2020

Dear Friends,
Deserts are hot and harsh environments with no food and little vegetation. Humans are not able to live in such places without perishing from dehydration and starvation. If we suddenly found ourselves in the desert, we would soon become aware of what is essential for survival. The first reading today recounts the experience of the Israelites when God led them from slavery in Egypt through the desert to the Promised Land. They were hungry, thirsty and groaning. God had already given them the Ten Commandments, and now led them through this time of suffering to test them and see if they really trusted in Him. He provided what was truly necessary – bread from heaven and water from the rock – to show them that they depend on Him for every good thing.

Our lives are in some ways like going through the desert. It seems a long time since we met together as a community to celebrate our Sunday Eucharist. We are still longing for the time to come when we can receive the Lord again in Holy Communion. This longing can be a grace in itself, it reminds us how much we need the Lord like being in the desert we thirst for him. There is something worth remembering, "Lord, I am not worthy to receive you". Holy Communion is not a prize for being good. We do not pretend to be worthy. We come because we are struggling sinners. We come because we are hungry and weak. At this time of the pandemic, we feel most of all the need for this gift to sustain us in these troubled times.

On this feast of Corpus Christi, we are reminded of this free gift. Through it, we receive the grace to help us to realise our total dependence on the Lord. Jesus said, "I am the living bread come down from heaven. He who eats this bread will live forever." Does the prospect of eternal life with the Lord really attract us? The Eucharist is the foretaste of the heavenly banquet

God Bless, Father Maurice.

Preparations for safe reopening of the Church

Before we can think of opening the Church, we need some volunteers that will be able to assist with the cleaning and stewards would be required. Volunteers must not be drawn from those instructed to shield themselves nor from groups considered more vulnerable to coronavirus. Those interested in helping please come to a meeting at 5pm this Sunday, 14th June 2020 in the Peace Garden where Frank Nice, our Health and Safety coordinator will outline what needs to be done to create a safe environment.

If we have everything in place, I am hoping to open the church this Wednesday 17th June from 10am -12pm and in the evening from 6pm -7pm. We will carry this on through the week and in time revise the need of opening times once we have any feedback.

When the Church is open, please follow the guidelines given to keep everyone as safe as possible. Social distancing will need to be strictly adhered to at all times.

FAMILY CONSECRATION TO THE SACRED HEART: This coming Friday the 19th June is the solemnity of the Sacred Heart. At 10am on Friday an act of consecration to the Sacred Heart for families will be live-streamed (and available to watch later) on the diocese's Marriage and Family Life Facebook page. In the days, leading up to this and following, couples from around the diocese will be sharing via the Facebook page their own inspirations for living out their vocation as spouses and parents in the domestic church. Please visit <https://www.facebook.com/BrentwoodMandFL/> (you do not need to be signed up to Facebook to access this).

JUST A THOUGHT!

Have you ever realised that the words “I”, “MY” and “ME” do not occur once in the Lord’s Prayer.
