Thought for this week:

Why bother praying?

Because Christian prayer is not about appeasing an angry God. It is centred on a person; Jesus, and through him we are invited into a loving and saving relationship with the Father, Son and Spirit that has consequences for how we live in this world and the next. In this relationship, nothing is wasted in our often-complex lives. We are invited where we are, as we are, to grow and become even more. And when we feel distant from Jesus, guess who has moved away from whom? There is nothing that can ever, or will ever, stop God from loving us. It is never late to make a return.

Fourteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time (Year C)
2nd & 3rd July 2022

Heroes of legend often begin their journeys into the unknown alone, with just their wits and an inborn courage to sustain them. So, Jesus sends his disciples off without the usual provisions for a journey. But there the similarity ends. He sends them out not alone, but in pairs. They are to bring no earthly talisman with them, but his own peace. Few of us live out following Jesus in that radical way, nor with the same single mindedness. We cushion our lives with as much comfort and security as we can. But every now and then come those moments of recognition when we realise that our material possessions and achievements are in the end – immaterial. As one saying goes 'There are no pockets in a shroud'.

It is only our God-given spiritual gifts which protect us in life's journey. The minimum is also a great teacher, opening us to appreciate what we have received from others, and give of what we have. The hero travels alone, but the Christian journey is made in community and has at its heart, the desire to spread the peace of God's kingdom. Every Christian is sent by Christ into the world as a messenger of hope and love. The 'world' here means the area in which I live, my places of work, the people I meet every day and so on. An active concern for the world and for other people is an essential mark of a good Christian.

We are all responsible for some small corner of the Lord's vineyard where it is up to us to take part with joy in this wonderful task, and to work for the coming of his Kingdom.

PRAYER

Lord, the harvest of your love is abundant, but those who work to make this love visible in the world are few. Help us to take part with joy in this wonderful task, and to work for the coming of your Kingdom.

God Bless and Keep Safe,

Canon Maurice

March for Life – 3rd September

This year marks the sad milestone of 10 million abortions in the UK since the 1967 Abortion Act. The March itself starts at the Emmanuel Centre at 2.00pm proceeding to Parliament Square, where there will be testimony and speeches, with the day concluding at 4.30pm.
