Thought for the Week: St Brigid of Ireland

Time and again in the gospel we see that Jesus needed the cooperation of women, to carry out his mission. They supported him at every moment of his public ministry. The qualities that made Saint Brigid great have been found in so many women down through the centuries. Some of these women entered religious life and were extremely dedicated to their vocation and mission. The vast majority, however, have been women who in their homes, workplaces and communities helped to nurture and to spread the faith. Without them the Church would have found it hard to survive and flourish. Their contribution is incalculable and the gratitude we owe them immense. – Bishop Michael Router

Fourth Sunday of Ordinary Time (Year A)

31st January & 1st February 2026

Dear Friends,

In today's Gospel, Jesus gives us a prescription. It is a prescription for happiness. Everyone wants to be happy, but how do we go about it?

The world proposes many solutions that promise to make us happy, but often they do not make us happy. That is because there is a superficial or passing kind of happiness, and then there is a deep and abiding happiness, which we can call blessedness: that is the kind of happiness Jesus is talking about. Jesus' prescription has nine parts to it. We call them the beatitudes.

The word itself means 'blessedness' but we can think of them as attitudes of the heart. Jesus is telling us that what is in our hearts is vitally important for our happiness. The beatitudes remind us that ultimately, our happiness is never to be found completely in this world.

We have to keep our eyes on the eternal goal of heaven. What better way could we examine our consciences than to reflect prayerfully on the beatitudes?

Even if we have failed to measure up to them, we can begin anew through the grace of God's mercy in the sacrament of reconciliation. Jesus has given us the prescription to be followed. Let us do all in our power, with his grace and help, to reach our destination safely.

*God Bless
Canon Maurice*
